

Case Study:

How Precedent's Demand Composer Improved Settlements and Tender Rates for Hines Law Firm

Executive Summary:

When Hines Law Firm adopted Precedent's Demand Composer, they transformed their demand drafting process — and their results.

An analysis of 522 personal injury settlements showed:

- 16% higher settlement amounts
- 71% higher likelihood of tender

Precedent Composer's AI-driven platform consistently delivered better financial outcomes compared to traditional drafting methods — without increasing the time to settle.

The Challenge:

Prior to using Precedent, Hines Law Firm's demand drafting process was manual, time-consuming, and highly variable.

Attorneys and case managers faced challenges:

- Surging volume of cases
- Delayed settlements
- Missed opportunities for maximum policy payouts

The firm needed a solution that could standardize, accelerate, and improve outcomes — without overwhelming their team.

The Solution: Precedent's Demand Composer

Precedent's Demand Composer automated the generation of high-quality, policy-driven demand letters, enabling faster submissions, better targeting, and more consistent negotiations.
